July 18, 2021 - 16th Sunday in Ordinary Time

1st Reading (Jeremiah 23: 1-6): Just as sheep need a shepherd to guide and protect them, the people need responsible and wise leaders to provide for them. Shepherds are supposed to take care of their sheep, they are to feed them, protect them, and guide them. God's "woe" is out of compassion for the victims of the self-serving shepherds. God vows to attend to the shepherds who have failed to attend to God's flock. The chaos of injustice under the shepherds who cared only for themselves will be removed. God will be their shepherd, and will raise up shepherds who will care for the people. Under new leadership, the people will no longer fear or be discouraged.

"THE LORD IS OUR RIGHTEOUSNESS"

2nd Reading (Ephesians 2: 13-18): Jesus Christ made peace by sacrificing himself on the cross as He died for all of us. All peoples are equal and loved by God. We all have access to His peace and comfort, all we need to do is repent and accept God into our hearts. Our hearts and minds will be at rest when we acquire true inner peace; His peace. God is our peace. Settle your heart, put your problems into the hands of God.

"FOR HE IS OUR PEACE"

Gospel (Mark 6: 30-34): Jesus cares about us and invites us to come away and rest awhile. Each day we can take some time and just be alone with Jesus. He will restore and refresh us. Jesus's call to rest is a demonstration of His care and concern for His disciples. Not only is Jesus committed to His mission, but He is also committed to caring for His friends. This is a reminder of what JOY it is to be cared for by the Good Shepherd. Jesus shows compassion to the people who follow Him. He leads His "wandering sheep" by teaching them. Jesus has compassion for those who are lost and wandering, and we must strive to cultivate this same kind of compassion toward the lost who live all around us.

JESUS OFFERS REST
THE HEART OF JESUS IS FULL OF COMPASSION
