CONFESSION: Contact Fr. Paul

14th Sunday in OT
July 7, 2024

First Reading (Ezekiel 2:2-5): The Lord sends the prophet Ezekiel to the Israelites.

Responsorial Psalm (Psalm 123:1-2,3-4): A prayer to God for mercy

Second Reading (2 Corinthians 12:7-10): Paul bears insults and weakness for the sake of Christ.

Gospel Reading (Mark 6:1-6): Jesus is rejected in his hometown. Today's Gospel describes what many believe to have been the typical pattern of Jesus' ministry: teaching in the synagogue followed by acts of healing. In his hometown of Nazareth, the people are amazed by what they hear, but they also cannot comprehend how someone they know so well might move them so powerfully. This Gospel tells us that Jesus is hampered from performing miracles in Nazareth because of the people's lack of faith. Jesus is said to be surprised by this. He did not predict or foresee this rejection. In this detail we find a description of the very human side of Jesus. Who is Jesus? His kinfolk in Nazareth might know the carpenter, the son of Mary, but they do not know Jesus, the Son of God.

Who is Jesus to You?

God made us to be complete spirit, soul, and body

God, your Father made you special. You are a very special person, created and crafted and designed by God your Father. He planned for you. You are no accident. Your Father made you beautiful and beloved. God invested an incredible amount of effort and concentration in designing you. You are unique, one of a kind. God has thought extensively about you. He smiled on the day he created you. He designed your spiritual heritage. There is a spiritual treasure chest of generational blessings with your name on it. Your Father has a purpose for you. May you be blessed with knowing the things your Father has called you to know and doing the things he has called you to do.
