First Reading (Numbers 21:4b-9): Moses made a bronze serpent and mounted it on a pole, and whenever anyone who had been bitten by a serpent looked at the bronze serpent, he or she was healed.

Responsorial Psalm (Psalm 78:1-2, 34-38): Do not forget the works of the Lord.

Second Reading (Philippians 2:6-11): Jesus Christ, though he was in the form of God, did not count equality with God as a thing to be grasped.

Gospel Reading (John 3:13-17): As Moses lifted up the serpent in the wilderness, so must the Son of man be lifted up, so that whoever believes in him may have eternal life.

God did not send his Son into the world to condemn its people.
He sent him to save them!

JOHN 3:17

"For God so loved the world that He gave His only-begotten son"

Rex Mundi – Christ the King Camp

Early this summer, Sydney Waldner and I (Laurie Szautner) had the opportunity to participate at a Catholic Youth Camp held at the Rex Mundi – Christ the King Camp on Marean Lake, SK. This land was purchased 60 years ago by a Catholic priest, Fr. Francis Meyer-Zielinski, when he borrowed the money from family and friends. A family of faith-filled volunteers built this camp with pioneer grit and community spirit. Today, families and friends continue to enjoy the camp of Fr. Zielinski's dream; a space to relax and experience God's creation in the glory of His natural landscape. To help sustain this beautiful camp, tickets are being sold for $20 each, and may be purchased from me, Laurie Szautner @ 306-231-5283.

If you are interested in learning more about this camp, check out their website at <https://www.christthekingcamp.com>
