First Reading (Isaiah 45:1,4-6): The Lord chooses Cyrus to subdue the nations for the sake of Israel.

Responsorial Psalm (Psalm 96:1,3-10): Sing praise to the Lord.

Second Reading (1 Thessalonians 1:1-5b): Paul greets the Thessalonians, recalling the Gospel they received.

Gospel Reading (Matthew 22:15-21): The Pharisees send their disciples to test Jesus with a question about taxes. Jesus’ response suggests the ethic that Christians ought to adopt. It reminds us of the importance of keeping things in their proper perspective. How do we discern our priorities. Do we attach ourselves to worldly things at the expense of the love and honor that we owe to God?

"I am the Lord, and there is no other"

Loving Saviour,

I confess that I tend to search for security in the wrong place; this broken world. I make mental and written checklists of things I need to do in order to gain control of my life. My goal is to check everything off my lists so that I can finally relax and be at peace. But I’ve discovered that the more I work to achieve this goal, the more things crop up on my lists. The harder I try, the more frustrated I become!

You’ve been showing me a far better way to find security in this life. Instead of scrutinizing my checklists, I need to fix my thoughts on You – rejoicing in Your Presence with me. The Bible tells me You will keep me in perfect Peace as I stay attentive to You. Moreover, being in communication with You helps me sort out what is important and what is not, what needs to be done now and what does not.

Lord, please train me to fix my eyes not on what is seen – my circumstances – but on what is unseen: Your loving Presence.

In Your matchless Name, Jesus..... Amen

(Hebrews 3:1; Isaiah 26:3; 2 Corinthians 4:18)

Eucharistic Adoration: Will be held every second Friday of the month, with the next one scheduled for Friday, Nov. 13 at 7pm. Eucharistic Adoration is a time for prayer in which we adore our Lord Jesus Christ in the Most Blessed Sacrament.
